No exhibitor may assign or sublet the whole or any part of the space allotted, nor exhibits therein any goods other than those manufactured or handled by the exhibitor in the regular course of business.

All matters and questions not covered by these regulations are at the discretion of ASB management (Management). Management may amend these regulations at any time, and all amendments that may be made shall be equally binding, upon publication on all parties affected by them as the original regulations.

Violations

Violation of any of these regulations on the part of the exhibitor, its employees, or agents shall annul the right to occupy the space and such exhibitor will forfeit to Management all monies, which have been paid. Upon evidence of violation, Management may re-enter and take possession of the space occupied by the exhibitor and may remove all persons and goods at the exhibitor's risk. The exhibitor shall pay all expenses, or damages, which Management may incur.

Cancellation of Exposition/MarketPlace

It is mutually agreed that in the event of cancellation of ASB's BakingTECH and/or MarketPlace due to fire, strikes, government regulations, or causes, which would prevent its scheduled opening or continuance, then and thereupon this agreement will be terminated and the ASB shall determine an equitable basis for the refund of such portion of the table top fees as is possible, after due consideration of expenditures and commitments already made.

Assignment of Space

Space will not be assigned without full payment. All assignments will generally be made on a "first-come, first served" basis, with an attempt to accommodate Exhibitors' preference requests. ASB does not guarantee any particular assignment or preference, or the availability of table top or space for assignment. ASB has the right, in its sole discretion, to change Exhibitor's table top assignment. In the event of such re-assignment, ASB will make all reasonable efforts to move Exhibitor to their next-most preferable location.
